Register now for the 2018 Wolfram Technology Conference!

Registration for the 2018 Wolfram Technology Conference is now live.

The conference will take place October 16-19 at the Hilton Garden Inn near Wolfram Research headquarters in Champaign, Illinois. Be sure not to miss Stephen Wolfram's keynote talk on Tuesday, October 16 from 5pm-7pm, followed by the opening reception.

Customize your conference experience by choosing a variety of talks from the following tracks:
Data Science & AI
Engineering & Modeling
Math & Science

Spaces are limited, so don't miss out on your chance to learn about the latest and greatest updates to Wolfram technologies, network with peers, experience hands-on training and more.

We want to hear from you, our product users and experts! If you are interested in submitting a presentation, please visit:
